The Roosevelt, originally one of the South's first grand hotels, has returned to its place as the premier luxury hotel in New Orleans. With a $145 million restoration, The Roosevelt combines its legendary past with personal service and modern comforts for an extraordinary present.

Boasting nearly 60,000 square feet of event space, including three spectacular ballrooms and 23 individual meeting rooms, The Roosevelt offers the level of service you would expect from a Waldorf Astoria Collection™ hotel. Each of the 504 luxury guest rooms, including 135 elegant suites, is dressed in exquisite décor and features contemporary amenities for a luxurious, unforgettable stay.

An opportunity to indulge lies around every corner at The Roosevelt. Savor the legendary Blue Room, unwind at the historic Sazerac Bar, enjoy world-class cuisine at Domenica, our John Besh signature restaurant. Or you can open the magnificent brass doors and let your senses take you just steps away to all the history, culture, entertainment and food that the French Quarter has to offer.
